

The Lyons Community Church Mid-Week Message

Thursday, February 2, 2017

Greetings Friends,

We are in the midst of the season of Epiphany, the season of revelation, the season of illumination. Throughout this season of Epiphany we are being guided by a worship series entitled "SAD : Spiritual Affective Disorder," which asks us to experience a variety of different spiritual practices. Thus far we have looked at how our everyday activities and musical playlists can be a part of our spiritual practices, as well as the impact joy and laughter can have on our spiritual journey and in our spiritual practice. Last week we explored the spiritual practice of extending love, kindness and justice to all people.

This week we will take a look at the many places where we can worship God. Can worship happen in the mountains? What about on a walk? What about on a busy city street? How about when your kids are fighting? What about in the bathroom? My answer to this and any other time or place is a resounding YES!

Worship can happen anywhere, because God dwells within us and amongst, no matter where we may be! With that said, are there times and places when we feel more worshipful or closer to God? Of course there are! But are there ways that we can make all places sacred, or all situations sacred? Join me on Sunday as we look at this very important question and seek to remember that we are never far from God's dwelling place!

I look forward to gathering together this Sunday. I pray that you have found opportunities each day to brighten the day of someone else, to make a difference in the lives of others!

Blessings,

Pastor Emily
