Skipping Stones

Dear brothers and sisters,

Last week was a wonderful celebration of our shared "Celtic" center - the quiet place deep within us filled with mystery and wonder. But our worship service was anything but a quiet celebration! The Granias blessed us with breath-taking music to celebrate the joint events of St. Patrick's Day and the Second Lenten Feast Day. The "feast" was complete with fresh fruit and green donuts - thank you! I'll be posting the sermon to You Tube, with a link on our Facebook page (www.facebook.com/LyonsCommunityChurch) as soon as my computer uploads the video.

For the Third Feast Day of the Lenten Season, we turn our focus away from paranormal miracles (like Jesus walking on the "thin place" of the sea's surface last Sunday) to another type of miracle - the miracle of forgiveness and the mystery of justice. This Sunday, we'll find Jesus drawing pictures in the sand as an angry mob pushes a woman caught in adultery before him and asks him to judge or condemn her. His response may surprise you - he sees no need to react to their demands, but invites them to think about justice in a new way.

We are blessed to have retired United Methodist minister Rev. Diana Boulter share our message on Sunday (since I am still under the weather - but don't worry. I finally went to the doc this week and hope to be 100% again soon). I'll be with you, though, and look forward to "skipping stones" together in music, prayer, and fellowship.

Blessings to you,

Pastor Emily

Joys...

All of the visitors at church on Sunday - welcome! Donna Lee back in church after her hospitalizations, Ray and Geneva's ongoing healing and ability to join us for church from North Boulder, their new home to be built in Longmont, Marty's 2 successful brain surgeries and amazingly speedy recovery, Pam's niece who was confirmed last Sunday, Aggie Brown (Nancy Liquori's mother) who received the 1st of our 2 RVs as temporary housing Concerns...

Jean's great-great nephew Hansley's kidney problems and surgery, Carol's older brother Joe's Parkinson's diagnosis, Pam's grandmother (Ruth) who is still not doing well, Ruth's eye surgery, Wanda's ongoing legal troubles, Ray Riedhammer's memorial service on March 13th and ongoing comfort and support for Jeanne, Victoria and Keith and their family with all the demands on their time and energy from school and work

The Grantias (above) and (right) a shamrock made by children during Children's Church and presented to Pastor Emily after the service (along with an Irish blessing).

May the road rise up to meet you.
May the wind always be at your back.
May the sun shine warm upon your face, and rains fall soft upon your fields.
And until we meet again, may God hold you in the palm of His hand.
