

The Lyons Community Church Mid-Week Message

Thursday, June 30, 2016

Service will be at 10:00am
Sunday, July 3rd

Yes, hopefully that is big enough and bold enough. Back to the old time again.

I (Mark Boys, your lay leader) will be standing in this Sunday.

We had a wonderful sending off for Pastor Emily Flemming last Sunday. It was great to see so many people come to say good-bye and give their best wishes. Also a big thank you to the Becks for hosting the farewell party after the service. Lots of delicious food was brought and shared and many mimosas were drunk. There were also many fine speeches and much giving of gifts.

Holy Communion will be on July 10th this month!

We look forward to welcoming Pastor Emily Kintzel as her first week to preach will be on July 10th. On that note, we usually have Holy Communion on the first Sunday of each month. However, since I am lay person I cannot do that and since this Sunday is the first Sunday, we will postpone Holy Communion this month until the second Sunday (July 10th) when Pastor Emily (K) will be here to officiate.

Of course it is July 4th weekend. So I will expect a rousing rendition of America the Beautiful on Sunday.

As to what the sermon will be about... Well, if you would like to know what is the connection between Jesus, the Roman Empire, Monty Python, the Industrial Revolution and Nicholas I (Czar of Russia, 1825-1855) and how that all has relevance to our lives today, then please come on Sunday.

There will be a short all-age story. I realize there may be many family plans on this holiday weekend. If there are few or no kids then not to worry, we will somehow manage.
